

Parrot Heads In Natural Settings

Gumbo Festival Weekend

April 1st & 2nd, 2016

Jacksonville Landing, Jacksonville, FL

Fighting Hunger One Bowl at a Time
Calling all Food Trucks!!!!!!

Okay we know that you can create some to the "Best" Chili on the planet but how about stepping out of the box and trying your hand at Gumbo?

Dust off your Gumbo recipe and come cook up a batch for the PHINS 11th Annual Gumbo Festival Weekend on Saturday, March 2nd, 2016

We already know that you love to cook. We know that there is a lot of competition and comradely between the Foodies. Come compete with some of the best gumbo cooks around consisting of individuals, clubs, businesses, and restaurants.

This competition is a little out of the box as your Gumbo will be assembled and served from the courtyard. We invite and encourage you to decorate your 10ft X 10ft serving area and promote your Truck. Parking for your truck will be provided outside the landing.

WINNING CATEGORIES (All cooks, including restaurants, are eligible)

People's Choice (winners to be determined by the 'tasters' with wristbands)

1st Place, 2nd Place, 3rd Place

Showmanship (a panel of judges will choose best decorated booth and presentation)

Best of the Chefs (a panel of celebrity judges will choose best of the restaurant entries)

Best of the Trucks (a panel of celebrity judges choose the best of the Truck entries)

Judge's Choice (a panel of celebrity judges choose the overall best gumbo)

If you can't compete please come to taste the various recipes and vote for your favorite while listening to TropRock music. The competition will once again be at the Jacksonville Landing courtyard located at 2 Independent Drive, Jacksonville, FL. Sponsors, vendors, and cooks may register now.

To compete as a cook go to www.phinsjax.org to download the registration form and rules or email Jeff Budd- jvbudd57@att.net cell 904-237-5333

Proceeds benefit local area our Food Bank in Jacksonville